The trend is currently that we should use recycled materials in the decor and decorating with vintage pottery.

The bright pastel colors are perfect to mix with the ancient ceramics. Bring light into the home using colors in the decor. I have found my top ten products in white and light colors. Find your color or colors. And then think in materials. Is it good craftsmanship that lasts. No more throwing out. Now we recycle, use interior from our parents' time and buy quality products that can go on to our children.

I have found ten products which I think meet modern trends. See my top ten summer interior!

J39, Fredericia Furniture: The People's Chair design by Børge Mogensen is a classic chair in long lasting quality.

Lindsey Hampton Ceramic: Lindsey Hampton is a great artist from Vancouver, Canada, with focus on ceramic and print design.

The London Collection Summer edition by LARA BOHINC for Skultuna: An elegant design from Swedish Skultuna. Perfect for summer table and summer evenings.

Ele Villa by Rock and Pebble: A playhouse in solid birch plywood.

Lomonto Dalton Vase : Vase with black coated aluminium base and three rings in black and white coated aluminium.

Miffy lamp by Mr. Maria: This year we celebrate Miffys 60th anniversary, and the sweet figure is still very popular, especially as a decorative lamp for the nursery.

Ment Cup: Curved cup in dyed porcelain from Norwegian Ment.

Elkeland Wilhanging: The beautiful handmade wallhanging from Elkeland, made from 100 % merino wool and copper.

PETSTOOLS Daisy, by Hanna Emilie Ernsting for Petite Furniture: I fell in love when I saw Daisy at a design fair. A creative and playful stool that is not only decorative in the nursery, but that may be a humorous element in any room.

Novel Cabinet Makers Triangle reflection mirror: Mirrors in geometrical simplicity. Reflection mirrors from Novel Cabinet Makers come in various shapes, and can advantageously be mixed into a graphic and beautiful mirror Wall.
